STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Ranchman Living Near San Angelo Rendered Unconscious.

San Angelo, Texas, June 17.—G. D. Estes, a ranchman and farmer residing near Wall, in this county, was struck by lightning yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Mr. Estes was plowing in the field when a small cloud came up from the west. A bolt of lightning struck the ground just in front of him. His team was killed outright, and Mr. Estes was knocked unconscious. Just after he

SALT CITY JUNCTION.

Salt City Junction, Texas, June 14. —I'll annoy you for a few moments by giving a few dots of this salty burg, although news is very dull. Farmers have fine prospects for good crops, the finest the scribe has seen in several years. Everything seems to be on the boom, and we hope it will continue.

We have a fine Sunday school. Everybody seems to be interested. Mr. H. H. Glenn is our bible teacher; C. M. Freeman, secretary; Mrs. Wig Tucker, class No. 1; Mrs. Keeling, class No. 2; Mrs. H. A. Woodard has charge of the card class, while Bro. Moffitt is our superintendent, and has the school under fine control.

We are proud to see the Junction coming to the front once more. She has quite a number of pretty girls, and will be a blooming place for beauty.

We learn there is some sickness around in the community. Misses Annie and Jennie Mae Glenn are on the sick list; Misses Bessie and Willie Keeling are also sick. Also Miss Winnie Collier is quite sick with typhoid fever. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Collier's little son, Fred, is sick with slow fever. We hope those unfortunate good people will soon be restored to health and be with us again, for they are missed when they are absent.

We see Miss Mary Zoeller is with us again, and we learn she has resigned her position in the Palestine telephone office as operator, and will accept a position in New Chicago, two miles east of here. Miss Mary is a sweet girl, and we are more than pleased to have her back with us once more.

We had the pleasure of enjoying ourselves at Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Woodard's singing. Those present were: Misses Mary and Pearl Zoeller.
